

I thought of doing something special this time, but I didn't know what to do!

So I thought as hard as I could for a solution, and there it was.

I ran to my computer as fast as I could.

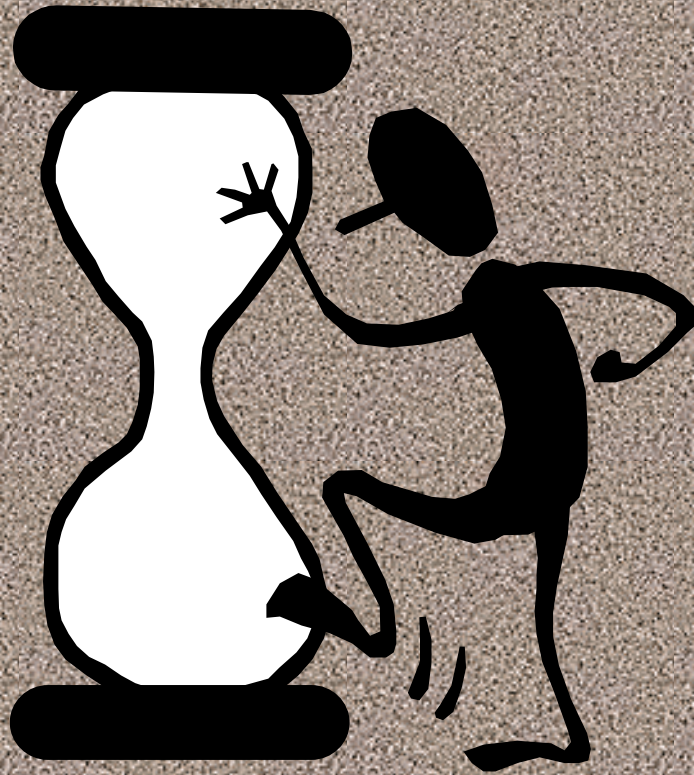

And made this presentation. Hope you like it. Or I will have to pack my bags and leave this sad world.

When I am without you I am very sad. My whole world is colorless.

Time passes by so slowly that I sometimes feel that it has stopped .

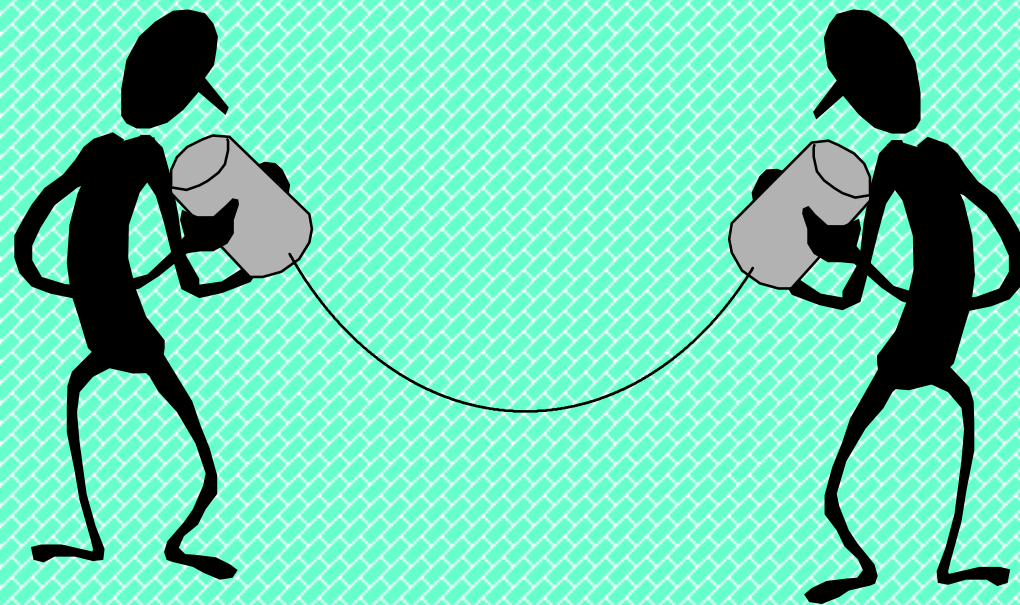

And I wish I could fly so that I could go see you. But I know
I can't possibly do that.

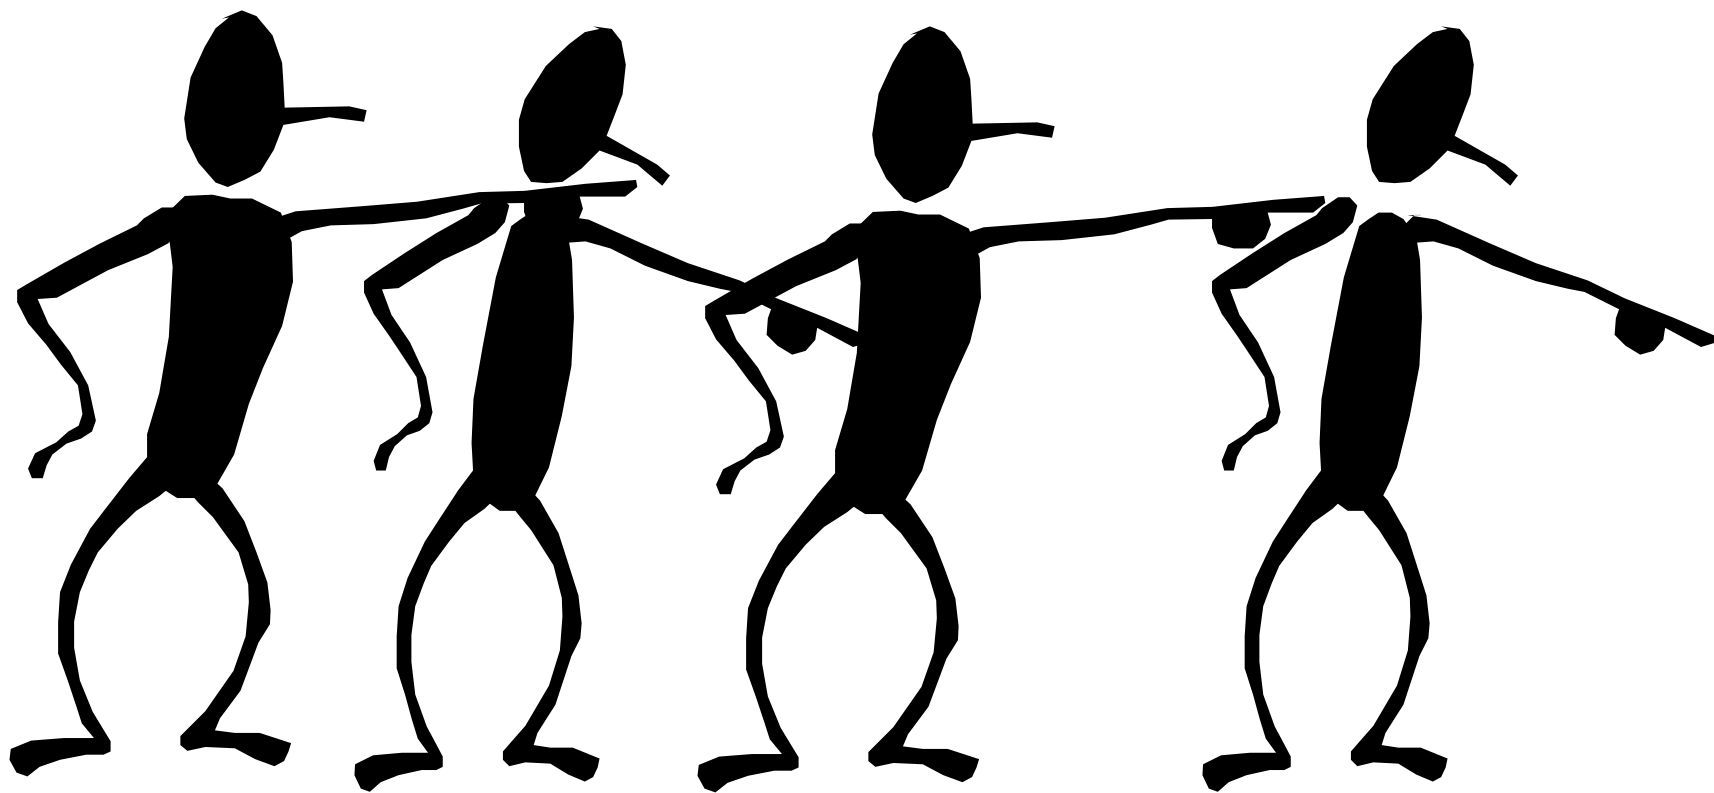

So I start cursing and breaking stuff.

And it hurts most when I can't call you on the phone every day honey.

And it still hurts, even when I consider how lucky I am that you are a very considerate and undemanding person.

You don't take advantage of me even though you know that most probably I would do anything you want.

And I guess you know the reason why I would do everything for you; but in case you don't I will gladly inform you.

Get Ready

I love you Elie 7ayete!!
